“ I will always miss you deb. Your struggles are over and may you forever rest in peace.

I met Debbie about 10 years ago, we both started Grace house in December of 2006. She was a breathe of fresh air and a very important part of my recovery. She always had the perfect answer to my every question or concern. I will always truly love this beautiful lady. Thanks Debbie for everything you have done and continue to do for me.

XOXOXOXO : (

Deb, you always helped me feel like everything was going to be OK. I loved your sweet, loving and kind of eccentric personality. You were a character and I loved it! You were fun to laugh with and I will miss all those things about you. Even when you were down and we would talk about it I felt you were spunky and you were going to be alright. I wish I would have known you were struggling. Maybe I could have helped.

*I am comforted in knowing that you are at peace and you are not in pain anymore. You don't have to fight this battle another day.
I'll miss you Deb.
Love you, Mo*
