“ Mrs. Brenda,
I'm so sorry for your loss. I used to live across the street from you and Mr. Dennis, I went to your house almost every day. He used to tease me all the time about different things. I never forgot the time he told me for every A I got on my last report card that he would give me $10, I came home with $60 day. I got married and moved away and I kind of lost touch with y'all but everytime I pass your house going to my mom and Shane's house, I think about the two of you.

*Love,
Jennifer*

“ THE MEASURE OF A MAN: Not - "how did he die" But - "how did he live" Not - "what did he gain" But - "what did he give" These are the units To measure the worth Of a man, as a man,.

I am thankful to have known Dennis. He and I were friends since elementary school. There are very few people in the world that are as easy to respect and admire. Dennis was the perfect example of what it means to be a Gentleman, Friend and overall a Great Man. I feel honored and blessed to have known him.
