Dixie Jo was her name given to her when she came into this world, Mimi was her name as she left this earth to be with the Lord. She personally chose this name for her grandchildren to call her, a longtime ago. Dixie was a shining diamond in the rough and a true southern belle. Her life here on earth was lived with immense passion. She loved the Lord with all her heart and this shined through by her unconditional love for her family and friends.

Dixie has left her mark here on this earth. Her soul has touched so many others. One of her favorite bible verses that she would always claim was, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." (Philippians 4:13). Mimi will forever be missed and more importantly, loved by all her family and friends.

“ Ms. Dixie, I will miss you so much. Your kindness and sweetness when I visit my Mom always adds much brightness to my day. I was very distressed when walking through the hall today knowing i would not see you again. It was a pleasure talking and dining with you, Ms. Bertha, and the other folks at St. Anthony's. You were a real lady, a true Southern Belle. I wish I could have known you in earlier years. Your charming disposition and comportment spoke volumes about the way you were raised and the way you lived your life. While you would meet me over and over again each visit, I will never forget meeting you. May you be at peace, may God bless you. Sincerely, Paul, Elaine, and Brian Abadie.
