“ I will miss you so much brother , you meant so much to a lot of people . Your heart was pure gold . Im left with a thousand questions but I know your at peace now . From the day I met you I knew you was a true friend . You been through hell and back and still kept others happy. No one truly knew what you was going through or what you was feeling inside . This is something we will never forget . You wasn't just a friend to me you was family and you know that . I hope your looking down watching over me . We was always together man we was 2 amigos . I hope you welcome me to those gates when it's my time. Until we meet again my friend . I love you brother . -Tito
