

Donald Geary Ferguson

October 16, 1954 - March 21, 2015

Donald Geary Ferguson, 60, was born on October 16, 1954 in New Orleans, Louisiana where he resided for all his life and developed a true love for the city. He was a hard-working, dedicated man that sacrificed so much of himself for the good of those he loved; he was selfless indeed. He devoted himself to his children and never allowed the problems of the world to affect his humor or enjoyment for life. He was a man of simple traits; however very wise in nature, always leading those he loved toward a more fulfilled life.

The world lost this wonderful man on March 21, 2015 by way of natural causes when he was peacefully taken in his sleep in the comfort of his own home. He was called home by the lord to join his preceding father, William F. Ferguson. He will forever be missed by his surviving family and friends. His memory lives on through his Mother, Dorothy N. Ferguson and his four siblings and their spouses: William M. Ferguson; Ronald and Mary Ferguson; Shelia and Gary Hebert; and Terri and Robert Ledoux.

He also lives on through his children and grandchildren: his daughter, Heather L. Ferguson; his son and daughter-in-law, Jonathan M. Ferguson and Katherine A. Gonzalez; his granddaughters, Jailyn and Brookelyn Granger. Donald instilled love and kindness to all he came in contact with. He displayed true courage and strength as he persevered through several hardships that were presented to him in his life. He was very personable while still carrying himself with such dignity and pride without ever losing sight of how to respect others. He displayed such patience with the world and never gave up hope that one day he, too, would get back some of the good that he had put in. He would give the shirt off of his back to someone in need and the world will never again know such an example of a perfectly imperfect man, exceptional father, loving brother and son, and endearing friend.

“ I really don't even know where to start. My uncle Donald was an amazing person. Loved to laugh and joke around. He was definitely a person you would want to be around. As I think back on the wonderful times we spent together with him during Mardi gras and family functions makes me realize how bitter sweet moments like that become. I will forever cherish those memories and keep them alive. May you rest in peace uncle Donald. With much love -Brittany-
