

Donald Anthony Signorelli

August 23, 1950 - March 28, 2024

On March 28, 2024, Donald Anthony Signorelli entered eternal rest after 73 extraordinary years on Earth. Don is survived by his loving wife Lynda and his three children: Lori (Nelson), Kim (Mike) and Rob, his brother Ronald Signorelli (Velma) and six adoring grandchildren: Mallory, Michael, Lindsay, Camille, Hunter and Sierra. Furthermore, Don is survived by his dog Sadie and his “great granddog” Koda. He is also survived by a host of nieces and nephews.

Don was the true embodiment of the head of the family—he was fiercely protective of his family and those he loved. He was the archetype of a man who radiated love, adoration and protection. If you knew Don, you knew he would do everything in his power to tend to your wants and needs, he was a true guardian in this life and is our guardian in the next. His sense of humor and generosity will be unmatched and he undoubtedly regarded his family and friends as the closest to his heart. He always cherished and yearned to always have all of his family and lifelong friends nearby, whether it was a crawfish boil, hunting, fishing or celebrating family milestones. He closely regarded relationships with his loved ones as time and memories well spent. One of his greatest joys was meeting his friends for coffee, breakfast and conversation for many years.

As a testament to his character, Don was an honest, hard-working man. After successfully owning a business, he transitioned into battery sales where he was recognized as National Salesman of the Year numerous times. He took his work seriously and instilled in his children and grandchildren an unmatched work ethic.

The family would like to recognize and extend their gratitude to the amazing neighbors on North Atlanta Street. We are eternally grateful for the care, concern and many great memories given to Don and Lynda.

Services will be private. In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent via Venmo to @donsignorelli. Arrangements entrusted to L.A. Muhleisen & Son.

“ In being married for 55 years, Donald and I have developed so many memories (both good and bad, but that's marriage!). He was the love of my life, and we created such a beautiful family that took care of the both of us. I cherished every moment I spent with him, and watching him become sick was the absolute hardest year of my life. But, it makes me think back--all of our friends on North Atlanta that we shared proved to be some of the best memories and times we ever had. He always knew how to make me laugh when I should've been crying, and he was the life of every room he walked in to. Together, we raised three amazing children; we also have six grandchildren who are the light of our lives. Donald cared so much for his family, more than I can write, and his passing will be leaving a huge empty space in our family.

After seeing Donald in so much pain over this last year, it brings me comfort knowing he is no longer fighting. He held on as much as he and his body could take, and for that, I recognize him as one of the absolute strongest people I know. He truly was a fighter and a survivor and I will miss him more than I can say. My love is at rest now, and I know he will be with my family and I every step of the way through this journey.

P.S. "Donald, stop it!"

I love you, Donald.

“ My Dad has left a void in our lives that will never be filled. I will miss his funny anecdotes, recipes, and interactions with his grandkids who he loved so much. His greatest joys were cooking for everyone, spending time sharing stories and memories, working on his show truck (his pride and joy- '84 Ranger), fishing, hunting, and my Mom, the love of his life. Even in sickness, he maintained his sense of humor. I will miss random texts through the day that would sometimes just let me know what he was cooking or cleaning. He showed us the best example of fatherhood and was definitely the strongest man I know. My heart is broken but I am at peace knowing he is no longer in pain. Please share your memories of my Dad..it brings my family such comfort to hear how well respected and loved this amazing man was .
