“ We remember her from back during Katrina. She came to check on your house after you evacuated. A very sweet and friendly lady.

“ Mike: We were sad to hear the news that your mother has passed on and are grateful to have shared several holiday dinners with her at your house. (She made a mean potato salad!) She was always very sweet and fun to chat with. And funny! Whenever I'd see her I'd say "Hey Donna, how have you been?" and she'd always say "Oh pretty good; trying to stay out of trouble." Cracked me up every time! You and all your family are in our thoughts.

Love;

Lynn and Tim

Your Mom was a wonderful lady and a graceful queen of the ball. I know y'all loved her so much as did her parents and grandparents, and the rest of the family.
