“ We tend to canonize those we love when they're gone from us; when they've left this world and we've been left behind to carry on. We tend to remember them as a saint, an angel, as flawless.

I just want to say, Donna Ann Davis Dale was one bullheaded woman! ...And we loved her that way! She was single-minded and ultra focused at times. You simply could not move her if she was right, and she usually was right. Donna was loud, opinionated, strong-willed, determined, but holy cow, she was also the most pure hearted person I have ever known. Donna did not have a malicious bone in her body. If you had a job to do that just had to be done, you wanted Donna by your side doing it. If you needed a team member who's spirit would never let you down, you wanted Donna to be your team mate. When you needed an honest answer, a forthright opinion you simply asked Donna...Because Donna would tell you what she thought...the truth, whether or not you really wanted to hear it.

Most of us know and witnessed the miracle that Donna's life was. She often laughed about fooling her doctors by living so long and virgorously. And boy did she show them how life is done! I'm convinced that Donna did so well because of her spirit, because of her attitude, because of her determination not to be held down or held back. Her folks raised her with plenty of love and good humor, to question everything, to constantly be learning something new, to be very independent and able to take care of herself and her loved ones. I'm convinced that Donna succeeded at all these things and more because she had just never considered failure a possibility.

To the lovely person Donna was, to the daughter, our cousin and friend; and (the role she loved the most in life) wife and mother: Save me a spot next to you at that heavenly dinner table.

*Love,
Your cousin,
Tommie Lynn Davis Duffy*

“ My very dear friend Donna will be greatly missed by me and my wife Darlene. Even though we never met this wonderful lit'l lady face-to-face, we became very close friends VIA emails and phone calls during her heart transplant experience several yrs ago. God Bless her. From a 23yr survivor of heart transplant in Texas to a very amazing lit'l lady in Louisiana. Vaya Con Dios dear lady

“ To my daughter who I love with all my heart. From the moment you were born, my love poured out to you, you were so tiny and small but beautiful and strong. I remember every little bit about you all through the years. Your struggles, your strength, your laugh, your tears, moments of Joy, Happiness & Sadness. You will always be my baby girl forever.. The joy and love you gave to me will be always in my heart and stay with me. . I will pray for you and think of you every day. I love you and miss you very much, Daddy

“ It's been 30 years we were together as a family. Remember the times at the camp, family gatherings and such..The thrilling, exciting moment you and Alan brought Barbara home. The birth of Melanie & AJ. All the things you were finally able to do to enjoy your family and watching your dreams come true for you..It's been a joy to see and be a part of this with you for all these years. Over the years we became very special to each other and for that I am forever grateful.. The bond and love we had for each other will always remain with me and you will forever be in my thoughts and my heart....The fun, laughs, good times, sometimes tears of joy and tears of sadness but through it all I would not trade a moment of it...With all my heart, I LOVE YOU & WILL MISS YOU TERRIBLY. especially our weekly conversations, which meant a lot to me... I thank God for the opportunity to know and have, had your love....
Love you , Louise
