

Donna Maria Pickett

January 23, 1949 - June 13, 2026

Here lies... no, I couldn't say that. It wouldn't do justice to the woman we know and love. She wasn't one for sappiness, so I'll skip that part.

What I will say is that Donna Maria Pickett passed peacefully on June 13, 2026, in her quiet home surrounded by the people she loved. Reunited with her husband, Robert Pickett.

She is remembered by her 5 children; Anthony Pickett, Helena Dufour, Teresa Lubben, heavenly Robert Pickett and Linda Pickett. As well as fifteen (15) grandchildren, three of whom welcomed her in heaven, and eleven (11) great-grandchildren.

To know Donna was to know love.

So I write this with the same love Donna shared with everyone she came in contact with.

"They say love is something you can't teach, but I'd beg to differ.

Love is something that is taught.

For I would know, because it was taught to us.

In conversation,

in hard decision,

in movie theaters,
in home-cooked meals,
and most importantly,
in a place to call home.
Love was unconditional and unwavering.
Never needing to be begged for or demanded,
it was just there.
Be a stranger, a close friend or even an animal,
you received it.
That kind of love was taught by our Donna."

She was not only a Mom, but also an amazing Mawmaw. She shared many memories, many laughs and many farts with her family.

If only we could have one more moment with her, to pause and savor it, we would.

But she knows she left a strong and resilient family who she will forever be watching over.

The greatest gift Donna ever gave us was love.

And because of her, we will carry that love forward.
