Doug, I was @ 15-18 yrs. when you arrived at the Methodist Home. I was on a path to TX Dept. of Corrections when you entered my life as my Social Worker. You were the first that cared. Instead of prison, I served honorable in Southeast Asia with the U.S. Air Force, married my High School sweetheart, 3 awesome, successful children, and an very rewarding career with Dow Chemical. Thank you Doug!!! I know today, that the God that sent you, has taken you home to be with him!!
