Dear Pawpaw. I'm still coming to terms with you being gone.. We are currently on our way to your services. I just want to say a few things to you. I miss you so much. There is a void in my heart. You were the happiness person I know. Always had a smile on your face and it lit up the whole room. Thank you pawpaw. For being such an amazing, loving, supportive man, and a wonderful great grandfather. I have all the stories you ever told me etched in my brain. They have been on repeat since you've been gone. I loved hearing them so much. I love that you taught me 3 kisses, because each kiss meant something different. First kiss stand for I. Second kiss stands for love. Third kiss was you. Always 3 never less. I'm so proud of just how hard you fought your disease. You never showed that you were in pain, when in fact you were. You never complained. You just kept on pushing. Thank you to the amazing team at the infusion center for taking such great care of my pawpaw. You treated him like he was family and for that I am deeply grateful. Oh boy pawpaw, I hope the angels up in heaven know how lucky they are to have you. I like to think that you are up there listening to Elvis while fishing. We will be reunited once again pawpaw. I love you. Forever and always. Rest well pawpaw you deserve it.

“ Sincere condolences to the family. I am so very sorry for your loss. May God provide the necessary peace and comfort to your family and friends during this difficult time. Please remember these words of encouragement from the Bible: “Jesus plainly told her: I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.” —John 11:20-25.
