“ Our family was blessed to know her, she was very sweet to my two children which said a lot about her. She always had a smile on her face regardless of how she was feeling inside, that to shows how strong she was as a person.

We all will miss her dearly and I am so glad that I got to know her on a personal level. We would talk about anything, everyone and even shared some laughs together.

God give the family peace of mind and acceptance as they face these challenging times.
