“Hey, Jim, Whatcha drinking? That was always the greeting when either me or Skip entered the Corner Pocket. We will miss you Skip and I am so proud to have known you. I will always treasure our conversations. May God bestow his blessings on your family and welcome you into his Kingdom.

“My wife, Kelly, and I have lived next door to Skip and Donna since 1987. Not once did we ever have a bad word, and it's a tribute to their friendliness and being great neighbors. Skip and I reached a point where we would talk jibberish to each other and then laugh about it. He fought a valiant battle, and we wish only the best for Donna, Cary, Tim and the rest of his family, who dearly loved him. May God bless him richly in the name of Jesus Christ.

“Almost everyday he would play pool with me and the rest of the over the hill gang. He would always enter so cheerful. Hi Ya, Hi Ya. Followed by John you want a drink, Charley you want a drink, Mike? And always end up with what is your name again? He will be sadly missed by all of us. May God welcome him and embrace him into his kingdom.

“Skip, you will be missed by all who knew you. I will always remember your trips to LaBellas, always the milk with a cold glass and a smile. God Bless you my friend.
