“ Eileen welcomed me to New Orleans with her lovely southern warmth. She even kept after me, checking in to make sure I settled in and was getting along well. I and the entire staff of Edna Karr High School are so grateful for her generous support of our students -- kiddos she never met, but read about and wanted to help as they strive for a better future. She made the world a brighter place and I am so grateful to have known her.

“ The year they were married Tim went to law school in Washington for a year. Gayle and I were also just married and we played bridge together a number of times at their house on McComb Street. They were fun evenings of cards and conversation, a nice memory for keeping.

“ Our sincere condolences to Eileen's family and friends, especially our cousin-in-law, Catherine Kreger and cousin Rob. It is hard to lose a sister, especially one as vivacious and vibrant as Eileen was. She was the family matriarch. We know that she will be deeply missed, but is now in Heaven with the Lord and suffers no more. God bless her and all her loved ones, and may the Lord give comfort to all who mourn.
