“ so how do i summarize a lifetime of great memories? Her always present smile, her witty humor, her energy. In the late 1980s i attended a CFMA (cajun french music association) convention- along with her sister, Thelma, and on Sat night we attended a dance with them. Around 1am my wife, Rosie and I, were pooped and headed back to the motel to get some sleep. Not Aunt Emma, she and her sister stayed and danced. We heard them come back to their room around 2:30am!! Yep, she lived life to the fullest and no matter what it was -bowling, dancing, or just visiting with you, she always made you feel that life was special and to take advantage of every day. She certainly did. Good bye, we will all miss you! Ronnie Thibodeaux

“ "Aunt Emma" came into my life as I was a young adult when she married my Uncle Ferdinand. She embraced my family and I as though she had known us our whole lives. She was a wonderful companion to our uncle and a terrific lady all 'round. We love you, Aunt Emma and we miss you.
