“ I am blessed and honored to have had Esther Lasch Will in my life. She was "Nennen" to me, my hero and my shining star. My cherished memories of her are forever, going back to my childhood. She was always there, looking out for me. She was warm, loving, kind and devoted to her family. Nennen suffered the loss of many loved ones, and I pray that her unwavering love of God brought her comfort through the years.

Nen loved to reminisce about her family's many train trips together and their house on Spain Street. I loved talking and sitting with her and making her laugh. But the treasured gift she left me was her unconditional love. She unselfishly asked for nothing in return. How blessed I am for knowing and loving her, and I am proud to call her my Godmother. My love and prayers go with her on her next journey. I will miss her, but her spirit lives on in my heart forever, as I strive to become more like her...faithful, kind, forgiving, and so caring, Rest well, Nen.

KN

Wini,

Your memories and love for your 'Nennen' is so heart warming. Knowing Esther as I did I am sure that she felt the same about you, that is not hard to do because you have been a reflection of her.

Love, Kathlyn

Susan, Stephen and Bill,

I am so sorry for your Mother's passing she was such a kind and loving lady and a pleasure to be around. It was always so wonderful growing up to have your Grandmother, Mother & her sisters with our family gatherings, those are times I will never forget.

Love, Kathlyn
