“ I met Teresa's mom when Teresa came to Immaculate Conception School in the 3rd grade, and Ms Couillard started working at the school. Every memory of her (and I'm sure I saw her every school day too), was of the bright smiling, beautiful woman with that strong Cuban accent. She always had something wonderful & sweet to say to me and the rest of us school kids. For all the hard times I know she experienced leaving Cuba and family, she managed to be so loving & kind. Everyone that's ever met her, will miss her so much. I know I will forever. xoxo Chamain

“ A wise woman with a beautiful soul that taught so much to so many. The impact that you have had on so many lives can not be described in words. It can only be felt in the heart of each of us affected. A wonderful woman that will always be remembered and missed beyond measure. Much love to the whole family, I will be thinking of you all during this time. Hugs to you. Carol Frazier ”
