“ Well, Butch and I go back over 50 years. I like to tell people that I still know a few people since the 5th grade and Butch was one of that small group. When you know someone that amount of time an event like this doesn't change that. I'll always know and remember him. Butch was one of the few people I would listen to when I was younger, he was something of an old soul even in the chaotic teen years. We were all lucky to have known him. Rest in Peace my old friend
