“ Sorry so late, just got a phone call today, have not lived in Louisiana for over 16 years.

What a wonderful person, can't say enough about Mr. Floyd. Had a major impact on countless children he coached throughout his years. If not for him I would have likely grown up with less confidence in myself.

“ In Loving Memory of

“Coach” Floyd “Red Bean” Searcy, Sr.

August 2, 1939 ~ October 12, 2013

He touched the hearts on thousands of lives. But now it is time to say our final goodbyes. It is okay and we should not mourn. Jesus knew today would be the day since he was born. He is at home now and at peace with his maker. So have a celebration for him because there's nothing greater. He is in a place that is so beautiful and we will see. When we are reunited for eternity. He is not gone forever, only for a while. So when you think of him just look up and smile. Take the lesson of love that he has taught with his life. Sacrificial love like Jesus Christ. There are sports in Heaven the children want to play. So God needed a great coach and he took him away.
