“ *I didn't know Mr Randazzo but I would like to give my regards to the family. In times of loss and sorrow, the scriptures can comfort our grieving hearts. Please note the words
John 5:28-"Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear HIS voice and come out..."*

“ *Dear Aunt Jo Ann and Family,
I wish I could be there with you today. You and Uncle Frank have been on my mind all day. We surely did love our Uncle Frank and he was always fun to be around. He was always happy, smiling and never had a bad thing to say about anybody. You have posted a great picture of him and that is just the way I remember him. My only regret is that I did not see ya'll as much as I would of liked to over the years. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. Love, Nessa*

“ Frank loved his Lord, Dear Wife and all his children. He loved singing and one of his favorites was "Beloved Let Us Love One Another" from 1John 4:7,8. Although saddened, even hurting because we will miss our dear Frank, we can rejoice in the very fact that's in 1Corinthians 2:9

But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him.

Joann and Family you are comforted with the love and comefort that only comes from Our Father, we love you

Your Sisters, Brother and Brothers-in-law that love and respected you.

Tony, Joyce, Vivian, Shirley, Lenora Jo-Ann and our spouses,

“ You all are in our heart and prayers during this very difficult time. I am truly sad for the passing of such a great Husband, Father and Grandfather. His life is reflected through each and everyone of his family whose lives I have been blessed to know. May God comfort and bring peace as only he can.

Love,

“ June 2, 2012, one of the greatest men I've ever known and a good and faithful servant went on to be with our Lord. Though I sometimes feel sad that we moved away and missed spending more time with you, Mr. Frank, I know, you know, you are loved. You and your entire family has blessed ours. David, the children and I will never forget you. You were always setting godly examples, always loving, happy, and never selfish. Seeing your love to our Lord has been instrumental in helping me work out my salvation. Miss Joann, I love you. You and Mr. Frank and the whole New Orleans Bible Church family are always on my mind and in my prayers. I'm sorry I haven't communicated that like I should. May HIS peace be with you now, you and your family.
In Jesus' name I pray this
