“ I know words during a difficult time do not ease the grief of losing a very dear person, but I want to express that you all are not alone.

Mr Fred was such a kind and good next door neighbor for so many years as well as the rest of the Seals, his younger son, and his grandkids play with mine a lot during their childhood.

My late husband and Fred share many conversations for a long time.

We just have to thank God for the time he had with us ❤️❤️

“ Whenever I was with them or in their home, I could feel the years and years of their support for ministers and the work of ministry. You stop by their home to visit to be a blessing to them, and they bless you instead. Mr. Freddie was an amazingly faithful churchman and church leader. I am sad for the family for this loss of a wonderful loved one, but I rejoice that he now has his heavenly reward and is awaiting our eventual reunion in the future of God's blessed kingdom.
