“ Been on this site a hundred times and just didnt know what to say. We were partners on the truck for 10 years, six, sometimes seven days a week. We talked about everything. We Started working together in late 1998. We became friends pretty quick. I never felt like It was work. We had a blast in the city. We Started at Campos, went over to Kirschmanns, Did a lil Home Depot, Pier One, took over Circuit City till we ran em into bankruptcy, then took over A-1. Took the whole damn place over. You were like a brother to me. I followed my calling, got off the truck and became a Paramedic in 2006. We still talked all the time. Up until you left. For 8 years i have thought about the conversation we had the Sunday night before this happened. I should have taken you up on that drink offer. I was trying to keep the peace with my then, wife, so I told you I couldnt go. I missed it. If only I could go back, Maybe I could have helped or changed your mind or something. Gary, I'll see you when I get there, but its gonna be a while.

“ There are no words for me to express how I feel about your loss. Just let me simply express my sympathy to the family. I know Erin is so distraught since she can't be here to comfort you. I will attend for us tomorrow
