“ Geneva Migliore

“ Miss Geneva looked out for my Mom (LaVern Memory) at Serenity and took care of her even though she never really felt well herself. My mom suffered from severe dementia and had the room next to Miss Geneva. I loved to visit her and talk with her. She was always cheerful and friendly. She was a wonderful person. I visited her several times after my Moms passing. I won't forget her.

“ Geneva Migliore was a wonderful person. In my youth she was one of the "second Mothers" on Calhoun St. that helped care for me, inviting me into her home, feeding me, taking me places, overlooking my misdeeds and counseling me with my problems. She always offered support and trusted me to be friends with her somewhat younger children. I am so glad that I got to see her again at her neice, Vickie's, service and express my thanks and appreciation directly to her. This beautiful person will be missed by many, including me.
