“ George was a wonderful son-in-law. He cared about his family and they truly cared about him. When George saw a way to help, he would jump right in. What I remember most about George was his laugh. It was that of a young child who had done something wrong and knew he was going to get into trouble. Very mischievous and contagious. Vincenzo has lost a fantastic grandfather as well as good "movie watching, snack eating buddy."

George really loved Vincenzo and that love was truly returned and will be sorely missed.

Our family loves George and will miss him. George, I will never look at a Diet Dr. Pepper the same way again. Love Always, Mom & Dad O
