Georgia Smith Cloy

November 19, 1921 - June 20, 2017

Georgia (Sister) passed into the loving arms of her Savior, Jesus Christ on Tuesday, June 20, 2017. Georgia was the daughter of Bunyon and Edna Smith and was preceded in death by two brothers, James E. Smith and Herbert D. Smith. She was married to her beloved husband of 77 years, the late James Willis Cloy. She is survived by only child, Georgia Ann Cloy whose love, devotion and unceasing care, exceeds any parents expectations.

Georgia was a native of Shucktown, Mississippi and longtime resident of Metairie, Louisiana. She was the loving aunt of Charlotte Hancock, Ronald Hess, Linnie Cloy, Ralph Cloy, Rayford Cloy, Danny Cloy, and Fay Cloy.

Georgia was a member of Williams Boulevard Baptist Church and the Joy Sunday School Class whose kindness, friendship and devotion surpasses words.

Special thanks to Alma Clarke and Eva Williamson for their care, expertise, friendship and love. Georgia Ann would especially like to thank Alison Rousseau and Karen Kenan for their decades of friendship, love, care and support.

Georgia's life was a great testimony to others. She loved her Lord and continued to serve Him faithfully until her sudden illness. She crocheted baby caps and blankets to be given to newborns in NICU. A few months ago she donated 18 of her crocheted baby caps and blankets to the Jean Browning Home for unwed mothers in Fosters, AL. She made beautiful afghans and taught and helped others in learning this craft. She shared her love for others through her cooking, whether it be pies, cakes, dumplings or her tomato gravy with her homemade biscuits which were the best. In her service to Williams Boulevard Baptist Church she provided dessert for many years for the Silver Stars Program. Georgia was smart and had an alert quick mind and kept it that way by completing many books of "Search-a-word". She could unscramble words in a snap. She enjoyed Wheel of Fortune and Jeopardy. She was an avid sports fan. Georgia was a quiet unassuming gentle woman, but a fervent prayer warrior.

A Service, officiated by Brother Wayne Bridges, will be held on Friday, June 23, 2017 at 10:00 a.m. at Williams Boulevard Baptist Church, 3000 Williams Blvd., Kenner. Visitation at the church from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. Burial will follow in Damascus Baptist Church Cemetery in Shucktown, Mississippi.

A special thank you is extended to Lakeside Hospice. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to Louisiana Baptist Children's Home, P.O. Box 4196, 7200 Desiard St., Monroe, LA 71203, www.lbch.org

Arrangements by L. A. Muhleisen & Son Funeral Home.
