“ My family and I knew Jay when I was a child in the 70s. We lived 2 doors down from the Vitrano's and have many fond memories of them. We moved away but I managed to catch up with Jay in the 80s few times. I wish I would have kept in touch over the years. My prayers and condolences to his family. God Bless

“ Vanessa, Brittany and Sabrina,

We were so very saddened to see the passing of Jay. I personally have found memories of he and his father picking up the girls from St. Edward and our girls going through their early school years together. Will keep the entire family in our prayers. Much love, Jay and Kelly Hebert.

“ My sincere sympathy and condolences go out to Jay's family. I know he will be sincerely missed. Jay and I became instant friends when he first starting working with me at Industrial and Marine. Over the years as coworkers we had many good times celebrating and discussing LSU football and Baseball as well as the Saints.

“ Mr. Jay was a great father and father in law. Jay was always willing to lend a hand anyway he could. He was one of the hardest workers as well, even when told to take it easy he couldn't help but get work done around the house. I'll miss you Jay, know you're looking down on us and your soon to be grandson!

“ To Mr. Jay, thank you for always being there for me for anything that I ever needed. I wish I could have had the chance to call you my father-in-law. I will always be there for your daughter just as you were for her. Love you, Mr. Jay and I will cherish all the moments that we spent together.
