“ Becky,
 This is Tony Schiro.
 The Schiro family is so sorry for your loss.
 He will be greatly missed.
 I Remer as a child how Gil and my brother Craig would catch stringers full of fish at Seabrook Bridge.
 They brought so many home, I always wondered if the left any for me to catch when I was older.
 Love to all the family.
 Tony

“ I have known the Naquin family for 35 years. I love them like family (they are family).

Gil was a quiet, respectful man who loved his home, his family and nature. His wife, daughters and grandchildren were his everything. Becky I know how much time you two spent together. You were virtually inseparable. May all your wonderful memories comfort you during this heartbreaking time.

My deep condolences to the family.

Grief is the price we pay for love." — Queen Elizabeth II
