

Glenn Anthony Ledet

March 1, 1954 - March 30, 2021

Glenn Anthony Ledet passed away on Tuesday, March 30, 2021 at the age of 67. He was a native of New Orleans, LA and a resident of Metairie, LA. Beloved son of the late Lovelace Ledet and Dolores Pierce Ledet, Glenn is survived by his brother, Brent A. Ledet.

Growing up on a small dairy farm, Glenn showed an amazing mechanical aptitude early on, routinely repairing or improving anything from tractors, appliances of every sort, cars, boats, even firearms, bows and other sporting equipment. He is remembered as an avid sportsman, an expert marksman, and a superbly talented gunsmith. Glenn is also remembered as an outstanding talent in the kitchen, his care and passion evident in every dish he made.

Glenn passed away peacefully and at home, in the company of friends and family, after a years-long battle with cancer. His kindness, generosity, and especially his funny little quirks, will be long remembered fondly by all who knew him.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend the Graveside Service at Greenwood Cemetery in New Orleans on Thursday, April 8, 2021 at 10:00 a.m.

Arrangements by L.A. Muhleisen & Son Funeral Home. Please join us in celebrating Glenn's life by sharing your thoughts, photos, favorite memories at www.muhleisen.com

“ If you ever met Glenn, you knew Glenn. He was as genuine, straight forward and honest as a person could be. He was uniquely himself all the time. He was gifted and talented in many (sometimes unexpected) ways. He was a machinist, and a good one, a 'foodie', an outdoorsman, a mechanic, and hidden away inside, a softie. He was at the same time the strongest man I ever met. Despite his very serious illness, he carried on with his life as though nothing was wrong. I stood in awe at times at the things he did when others would have quit long ago.

He was true to his friends, sometimes despite their faults. I think he remembered everything I ever told him. Even the last time I saw him (at his gravest) he remembered I missed my New Orleans french bread and Chessasi ham.

We were shooting buddies and enjoyed days on the rifle range and long telephone conversations discussing accuracy, good machine work and fine firearms.

He is gone now but he will long be remembered by all of us gifted with his friendship.

Goodby my friend. Rest in your well deserved peace.
