“ Glyn will never be forgotten by us here in RI. I can vividly remember the first visit in 1980. Visited Sturbridge Village in my 69 Olds. It was a nice time. In the next visit we got explore more, including the Big E, Newport and Mystic. Who can forget them giant baked potatoes at the Maine Pavilion with all that sour creme. I don't know how he ate it so delicately with his mustache. He was one of the nicest guys I ever met. I will always remember him. ED FLORI

“ It was a pleasure working with Glyn. He always had interesting and l-e-n-g-t-h-y (lol) stories to tell - about his vacations, the pineapples he grew in his greenhouse... Although he retired from the U.S. Trustee's Office nearly 3 years ago, he has remained in our hearts and minds. Our condolences to you, Stephanie, and the children. May Glyn rest in peace and the angels watch over him.

I went to high school with Stephanie so I've known Glyn and Stephanie ever since then. What a wonderful couple. Prayers to Stephanie and her family and I will cherish the memories.
