Dear Guarino Family, I am so sorry for your loss. Harold was truly a very nice person. I worked with him at Harrah's Casino for about 4 or 5 years before I retired in 2008. Many times we ate lunch at the same time. Harold always talked about his family, his children, his grand children...he showed me photos of the family, He loved his wife and the grandkids, they meant the world to him and Harold was a great asset to the company he worked for. He made a nice appearance and he greeted the customers with a smile and a friendly word. They liked him. Harold will be sadly missed. I will think of him in my prayers and also of his family, that God may grant them strength to see them through this time of sorrow....love always...Barbara Lynchard....PBX Operator of Harrahs
