“ As a rookie in '77 I met and worked with Red for 5 years. To say he was one of a kind doesn't do Red justice. Of the 215 firefighters I worked with Red was so memorable that after 41 years my friend and I talk about the times we shared with him every time we get together. The stories could fill a book and Rigdon was always the leading character.

He will never be forgotten by the friends who knew him.

Very very sorry for your loss.
