“ Though we did not grow up together Helen was my big sister. She raised 4 really nice children, and was a loving wife to her husband Vincent.. Helen faced all of her life's challenges with grace and dignity, and her faith in God never wavered. She will be missed by all who knew her. Irene West

“ My heartfelt condolences to all the members of the Lofaso family!

Many years ago, when her daughter, Helen & I were teenagers, I often visited the Lofaso household. Miss Helen always had that lovely smile on her face, & always made me feel so welcome.

She'll be right at home with the angels. May she rest in peace!

“ Dear Lofasos: Sorry to read about Helen's passing. Thanks for sharing her with St. Mary Magdalen for all those years. After learning about all her brothers it explains her strength an faith. My prayers are with you and remembered Helen at Mass. Sincerely, Father Bob Massett, SMM pastor 1995-2016

“ I'll never forget one day when it was just me and Mom sitting there and she got out her rosary beads and I'm not Catholic but she asked me to do them with her and I had no idea how. She handed me a set of beads and told me how to do it and we sit there together and went through the rosary beads. Like I said I'm not Catholic but I loved her enough to join her in her faith. It's not the church label over your head it's the name Jesus that saves you, and I knew Mom was saved and I knew she loved the Lord with all of her heart. She will always hold a very special place in my heart. I send my love to you Karen, and my love to you Sandy, and my love to you Steve, and my love to you Helen. God bless each and every one of you.
