“ Patty, Mike and entire Zito family, My heart is heavy for you in this time of grief. Please know you are lifted in prayer....and hopefully the thought of your mom and dad's reunion brings joy to your hearts. All the words of comfort cannot take away the pain - but hopefully it sees you through this dark time of grieving.Love you. Michele Branigan

“ Never in my entire life have I ever not been able to speak, think or place heart felt words as I am right now... Never ever had this happen before.. I never thought it would hurt so bad, worst then anything before... I can only imagine that not having you with us is why I feel this way. I am empty.... But , also, I want to say that I have been so blessed to have had Dad and you , Mom, for as long as I did. Mom, yes, I am watching the Golden Girls on tv and my night time phone call from you, Michael, am I going to see you tomorrow? Well, I can say that indeed, You Will See Me On Tomorrow.....

Love, Michael

I am so sorry to hear about your Mom. I know very well what it's like to lose your mother as I did in the mid 90's. I last spoke to you by phone last weel when my cellphone stopped working and I was not aware of your Mom being ill. So I know this is something that occured without any warning. Our hears are woth you in this time of sadness.

“ Patty,
I was so sorry to hear about your beloved Mom's sudden passing. We spoke many times about our Moms as they were getting older and their "trials & tribulations." I know I will treasure every moment I can with my Mommy while I can. You were so lucky to be with her for so many years and she was so blessed to have you. My sincere sympathy to you and your family.

Dear Patricia, Mike and Jimmy: Was shocked to hear about the demise of your dear Mom. I can remember the day of her marriage to your Dad, as I was one of the bridesmaids.. it seems like only yesterday.. and now she is going to join him hand in hand again! May God Bless your Mom and keep her close in his arms. Love, Cousin Lucille Zito
