“ Jesuit is so grateful to Hank for the countless hours he spent volunteering at Carrollton & Banks and for his efforts keeping the Class of 1951 connected to each other and to Jesuit High School. I am confident that it was God's plan that he enter the gates of heaven on the same day as his colleague Br. Billy Dardis. Thanks, Hank! Tuesday's won't be the same without you.

“ Kindest and most generous soul I've ever been around - I would see hank at Jesuit for 30 years volunteering his time cheerfully to the school he loved, I appreciate very much knowing such a beautiful person - and would hustle down at 10 min break to catch a coffee with him/ I will miss his humor and friendship and his incredible courage .

To the family:

Hank had a quick smile and a happy face. It was a pleasure to meet him in the hallway or sit at the same table at lunch. He and I worked at BellSouth together.

As a fellow employee, I have fond memories of Hank. My condolences to all of you.

Jerry Andrews, BellSouth retiree.
