

Henry J. Watermeier, Jr.

August 25, 1942 - July 28, 2019

Henry J. Watermeier, Jr. passed away on Tuesday, July 23, 2019. He was a native of New Orleans and a resident of Metairie. He was predeceased by his parents, Adele Pecoul and Henry J. Watermeier and his brother, Leo Watermeier. Henry graduated from De La Salle high school and Loyola University. He proudly enlisted and served in the U. S. Air Force during the Vietnam War. Subsequent to his honorable discharge, he began an extensive and distinguished career in law enforcement. Henry joined the New Orleans Police Department, attaining the position of detective (homicide/robbery), ultimately retiring as a probation and parole officer with the State of Louisiana. Henry wished for his caregivers at Metairie Healthcare and Harmony Hospice to know of his gratitude for their compassion, patience and care.

“ I got to know Henry because we shared the same "watering hole" stop off before going home. He was entertaining and fun to be with. In today's world we need more like him. Rest in Peace, Henry.
