“ *So sorry to hear of your loss. Your dad was a kind and generous man. I worked with him at the temporary service for years. Herb was one of the last true gentlemen. He will be missed.

“ *My godfather, my friend, my inspiration. He gave me a sled when I was five when I still lived in NY and wondered how he could get a sled in a place where it never snowed. I went to visit him on my 49th birthday and he said that was the best night's sleep he had had since Virginia passed away. I still have that sled and plan to make a tribute to my hero in my new home in the mountains of Va.
"Goodbye my friend. Though I'll never see you again, but the time together through all the years will take away my tears. I'm okay now, you can go now... goodbye my friend" ;-)*

“ Mr. Herbie was the most kind, gentle, and sweetest man I have ever known. A true war hero, he was so humble and honest. I love you and will miss you, but, never forget the tenderness you brought to my life.

To Anne, Al, Nick, Bobby and the entire family, you are all in my thoughts and prayers.

*Love to you all.

“ One time we were a Gulf Shores and Richard and I played Trivial Pursuit and Hugger Muggen an English game with my father. He always won. We quit playing with him because he was just that smart. He laughed and laughed and laughed!!! I never saw him laugh so hard. We were grown too.

Anne, I have an old photo of your Dad which I tried to upload for you but couldn't. If you email me your address, I'll send it to you. (I found it in an old album of my father's -- they must have known each other in the service). Kathy Moore - kmoore [at] wayne.edu
