“ My thoughts and prayers to Ms. Irene's family for their loss of such a remarkable lady. She worked hard and was always telling people how it is and not what they wanted to hear. I loved when she put all those signs up in her store, "Crabs don't always come with 2 claws!" , "We don't except checks - you are not an exception!" , " No free tastes !" She always had one up on those customers who thought they could get over on her! There will never be anyone like her again and she will be sadly missed. She loved her work and she loved her family, but she could get pissed off and don't get that little german lady stirred up cause she was a pistol!! Hebert's Seafood won't be the same without her, but I bet her spirit will still be there watching over the family and protecting what she and her family worked so hard to achieve! " REST IN PEACE ", Ms. Irene

“ Mrs. Irene was such an amazing lady with so much love to give. She was a lady of many words and wisdom. She told it, like she saw it; that was her personality. She never met a stranger; to her everyone was a friend. She has done so much for so many people and never asked for anything in return. I have listened to many of her stories of her childhood, her life in Germany, her working from the back of her truck selling shrimp, and of course of her family; and I have enjoyed every one of them. These stories of her life have made me realize why she was the person that everyone loved and respected. I had never met anyone like her and probably never will again, she was one of a kind! I have known her for over 10 years but the last 4 years have been extra special with our regular Tuesday visits. Mrs. Irene was an angel from the first time I met her and now she has earned her wings to watch over each and every one of us. I will miss her dearly. I love her as I do my own mother. My thoughts and prayers are with the family at this difficult time.

“ Ms. Irene was a great lady and my kids and I will miss her. I remember going into the shop about 6 months pregnant with my son and she said, " are you married?" and I said "no" then she told me "I should whip your ass. You need a husband. No more until you get married." I'm still not married but she loved me and my 2 kids like we were her own. I love that little lady and I always will.

“ Ms. Irene was a "PISTOL" of a lady. From when I first met Willie and Chief about fifteen or so years ago and got to know Ms. Irene I knew she was a lady like no other. I also know she will be sadly and deeply missed by Willie, Chief and all her family and all that knew her. We will all miss her.

“ Ms. Irene took me in to her heart like I was her life-long best friend from the first day I met her. She was extremely funny, demanding, loving, "vocal", loyal, and most of all giving ... of herself to others, including her beloved pet dogs. She was a remarkable women and a most unforgettable character. She will be missed and fondly remembered by so many.
I will be in Austin on Thursday; otherwise, I would be saying good-bye to my friend with her family and her many other friends. Be good to an animal in memory of Ms. Irene, Jay

“ You will be greatly missed! I can remember you selling shrimp out of the truck on Hwy 90, and you asking me to get a collar for your dog at TG&Y - which I gladly did. It was always a pleasure to come into your store and see your smiling face. Peace and comfort to your family and may you rest in peace!

“ Miss Irene, you spoke what you felt and you always called the ace of spade as YOU saw it...I liked that about you. I'll always remember you and how you loved my daughter (Jeannee). May you rest in peace and may your family have peace in their time of sorrow. You'll be missed by many.

“ Wow Ms. Irene, I still remember you selling shrimp out of a truck on Hwy 90. You were a great person that always had a story to tell and a smile to give. I can see myself coming in for 5 pounds of crawfish and you would say 'you want corn? you want turkey neck'...My entire family loved Ms. Irene and we will never forget you. I pray for the faliy's strenght and may God's grace and mercy be with you always.
