Iris Champagne DeLaneuville

It is said, that when someone passes on close to Christmas that they are received in heaven without delay. This is given to all human kind as a gift from God to celebrate the birth of his son, Christ. And so it is, that on Christmas Eve Iris was given this wonderful gift. Her lust for life gave her many friends and her strong sense of family made for the great admiration given her by all in her life. Born in Edgard, LA and resided in Metairie, LA. The wife of the late Theodore James 'Ted' DeLaneuville and mother of Deanna DeLaneuville Daigle. Mother-in-law of James A. Daigle. Daughter of the late Aline Marie Copponex and Paul Joseph Champagne. Sister of Faith Roussel and the late Joy C. Schexnayder, Doris C. Matherne, Mary Lou C. Schexnayder, Audrey C. Reynaud, Rita Jane C. Bohn, Durward Champagne, Wallace Champagne and Frankie Champagne. Beloved grandmother of Allison D. Wright, Rhonda D. Abadie, and Jacinda D. Bourgeois (Harold). Great-grandmother of Alexander Wright, Carolyn Abadie, Krystal Abadie, and Brandi Bourgeois. Iris was 94. The family would like to thank Dr. Robert McCord and his staff, as well as Waldon Health Services for the wonderful care Iris received.

Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the funeral. A Funeral Mass will be celebrated at L. A. Muhleisen and Son Funeral Home, 2607 Williams Blvd., Kenner on Saturday, December 29, 2012 at 12:00 p.m. Interment in Garden of Memories Cemetery. Friends may visit after 10:00 a.m.

“ Ms. Iris was a wonderful person and a dear friend/cousin to my father - John Richard Haydel. I remember her visits to Vacherie to see dad. She would call me ever so often after my father passed away in 1990 to see how our family was doing. I hope you are in heaven with him. My sincere sympathy goes to the family.
