

Iris Lynn Landry

February 8, 1945 - January 21, 2016

Iris Lynn Landry passed away in her sleep on January 21, 2016 following a long courageous battle with cancer. She was 70 years old. During her lifetime she met challenges and heartaches head on and her determination never wavered. She was a loving, dedicated educator who received several awards during her 40 years of service with the Jefferson Parish Public School System. Her student's struggles became her own and she never gave up on a child. She dedicated her life to helping special needs children often reaching them when no one else could.

She is survived by her husband of 35 years, Keith Michael Landry; her children, Thaddeus Babin III (Laurie), Michael Babin (Beverly), Christopher Babin, Nicole Babin Solis (Felix) and Thomas James Landry (Elizabeth); her grandchildren, Rebecca, Veronica, Lucas, Victoria, Malik, Lindsey, Bobby, Alyssa and her great grandchildren, Lauren, Jace, Emily and Natalie. Her legacy and love of helping others will continue through the lives of her son Thomas, daughter Nicole and their families.

A private celebration of her life will be held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

“ Iris Lynn Landry

October 15, 2023 at 09:39 PM

“ I was so sorry to learn that Iris lost her battle. She came to visit my husband, Bobby, right before he died from an inoperable brain tumor. He did chemo and radiation, but it didn't faze his. It was less than 4 months from the time Bobby was diagnosed until he died. I was so hopeful Iris had beaten hers. My sympathies to you all.

Vicki Frame - January 26, 2016 at 01:05 PM

“ Full Of Love Bouquet was purchased for the family of Iris Lynn Landry.

January 24, 2016 at 06:44 PM