

Jacquelyn Kenmure Wack

June 23, 1943 - November 25, 2018

Jacquelyn Kenmure Wack, known to all as Jackie, passed away Sunday, November 25, 2018, in her home surrounded by her family. She was 75 years old and a lifelong resident of Metairie.

Beloved wife of 50 years of Robert Francis Wack. Devoted mother of Susan W. Lenoir (Chris) and Christine W. Petitpain (Addison). Loving Maw-Maw of Camille and Jacob Petitpain. Daughter of the late James Alexander Kenmure, Sr. and Irene Butscher Kenmure. Sister of Irene K. Hebert, Patricia K. Pitfield and James Alexander Kenmure, Jr. and the late Estelle K. Hamilton and Robert Gerard Kenmure. Also survived by many cousins, nieces and nephews.

Jackie attended East Jefferson High School and graduated in 1961, in the top 20 of her class. She was employed at Westinghouse until the birth of her first child, at which time she became a homemaker, taking great joy in cooking, gardening and especially spending time with her family and friends. She was an active and faithful parishioner of St. Angela Merici for 45 years. Jackie always placed her family's needs before her own, and she will always be remembered for the sincere kindness and generosity she showed to everyone.

“ I am an employee at OrthoPTic rehab and we were just informed today of Mrs. Jacquelyn's passing. We were all at a loss for word when we heard she had passed. I felt the need to share how very kind she was. Even in pain she had a smile on her face. She always greeted us and other patients with a smile. She had a very kind soul and a soft heart. We were blessed with her positive vibes and she will never be forgotten.

We are sending love and prayers to her family and friends.
