Daddy, every morning after I pray and then as I start my day (yep I drink coffee all day and evening like you) I think about you memories that I will always hold close to my heart even after all of these years that you went before us.I look forward to these moments they still make me think about you and one of your great grandsons(Jacob and Vamessa's son Kaden Loal loves his coffee too just like we do I tell him about you and how you would have loved to know that your coffee will be another generation of your family who will know even the little things about you some may think it's nothing but to me it is things nobody can take from me)Daddy I know that momma misses you so much and I am sorry that whatever happened changed many of lives but that the one thing I will always remember growing up was hearing "no matter what happens in our family we will always stick together"but whatever it was I still live that through your grandsons my son's no matter what they have done im still here with them Claude had his stroke and now Brandon had a very bad stroke and I will do everything I was raised to do for him he is paralyzed and then recently he had another stroke it affected his ability to remember but by God's Grace he ask about you and his maw maw and how he can't wait to hear your jokes and eat his maw maws food and see his family especially his cousins and he and your first born grandson Christopher Michael Anthony Brown spoke before he went ahead is us too(I still don't know how to adept this and Joy and their children needs all of us I know that Chris and you are by their side in Spirit and that helps me knowing this part of him going ahead of us)and they laughed talking about the memories of their Paw Paws jokes so Daddy one day your grandchildren are going to be able to be with you and their maw maw in their forever home in Heaven and we pray that we will all be together again with no more pain suffering and with forgiveness. I Praise God for the time I had with you Daddy until I see you at Heavens Gates I will forever be your baby girl your Petunia.
