“ My Jim Bob. You have been in my life for 2 1/2 years, seeing you every week and sometimes 5 times a week to pick up my favorite food you would prepare. You made the best Gumbo. I remember bringing you home from the hospital and you standing by the kitchen sink peeling 5 pounds of shrimp and me telling you, you should be resting and you replying, I had to much rest in the hospital. I remember you telling me, how u laid in that hospital bed and how you imagined every step in your mine making that gumbo for me. It hit me on Sunday, when I really started to miss you. I would have seen you on Saturday, then I realized that was yesterday n I'll never do another visit with you again, i won't be going to your house to pickup food, and i wont be bring you a xmas present. I just broke down and cried, just like im doing now. The only way for me to get through this, is by knowing that one day I'll see you again, and when I do, I'm going to give you a big hug and kiss you on your forehead like i would always do before I left. I remember you said, i should paint my lips up there, pointing to your forehead. When you know I'm coming, you should paint those lips on your forehead just like you said you should do. You never realize what you truly have until it's gone.
Jimbob you may not be here anymore, but know you will always have a special place in my heart forever.

“ My name is Bob Heick. I was known as Robbie. We met in 1966 in the Navy and we've been in contact for 58 years. Jimmy was my best friend and I was his best man in 2001 to his marriage to Annie. It really hurt to hear Jimmy past away. I will miss him forever. To Susie, Vicky and Henry I send my deepest sympathy and hope we will all keep in touch. My love to all. Robbie
