“ Will always remember you Jim, from the first time we met. Sue was working at Rodeway Inn. Your Friendship was accepted like we had all been friends already. Our friendship was so easy. We stood in each other's weddings, and we went on and had our 1st babies 2wks apart. We couldn't live e much closer, across the street from each other. We spent ever weekend together, when we were off. We worked around your shift work around Shell. We made our Midnight trips to Taco Bell & Taco Tico. My prayers are with your family. REST IN PEACE JIM 4/13/1957-9/09/2018

“ I am sorry for your loss. I worked with him at OL5. I never heard a bad word about him. I used to critique his cigars by smelling them before he lit them.
