“ Jim Kenny was a person of great faith and I believe he is in the arms of God, and in the company of his relatives and friends that had predeceased him to Heaven.

I pray one day, in the non-to distant future, to join Jim for eternity in the presence of God.

Thanks to Jim Kenny for being a great example of behaving as a faithful Christian in daily life of family, society, and business

I met Jim in 1968 at the Jersey Shore. He married my good friend Cathy a few years later. He was and remained a great guy who loved his family and everyone around him. His humor and his generous spirit will be sorely missed by his Pennsylvania friends like me.
