“ I am Janice’s aunt and only five years older. We always had so much fun together. She would come every summer to see my daddy who was her PawPaw and my mother who was her Grandma Vennie and me. We lived in Magee, Mississippi. It was my job to run my daddy and mother’s grocery store in the summer so I welcomed Janice’s help. We worked well together. We waited on customers, pumped gas in cars, swept and cleaned, put empty soda bottles in crates and oh yes, we played homemade board games. When it was lunch time, Mama would come get us. She would have the best prepared food, but all we wanted was a fried green tomato sandwich. Daddy had tomato vines growing by the smoke house. We would go pick and fry them. Daddy said “girls, I can’t ever get a ripe tomato with y’all eating them green”. He didn’t mind us eating them though.

I loved my Janice. We all did. She was so beautiful and precious!

I love you Janice and will see you later. ❤️🙏

Love, Aunt Joan

I am sure she is cooking up a good meal in heaven with Mrs. Florence. May God give y'all the strength through prayer and happy memories to get through this difficult time. “Janice has been more like a mom to me than a big sister. I can remember her showing up to be a room mother in 4th grade. It meant so much to me. She was there for my daughters surgery at 11 months old and everyone called her the grandmother. I heard stories growing up of her waking through the grocery with me on her hip & everyone thinking she was a teenage mother, we are 16 years apart. I guess it just came natural for her to be a mother figure to me. She was my rock through good & bad times. Janice has always put everyone else first. We will miss her dearly. I love you Janice. I know your at peace now, no more pain & your with mama, daddy & J.D. Until we meet again.”
