

Janye Loyal Badinger

May 5, 1946 - January 16, 2023

Janye Loyal Badinger of Metairie, LA passed away peacefully on Monday, January 16, 2023 at the age of 76 . Janye was born in New Orleans on May 5, 1946 to the late Leola "Lady" Winters Loyal and William Loyal. Janye graduated from Fortier High School in New Orleans and attended LSU. She retired from the Jefferson Parish Coroner's Office after many years of service. Janye was a diehard Saints and LSU football fan and loved Mardi Gras, even serving as a maid in the Krewe of Venus, the first female Mardi Gras parade. In recent years Janye spent many hours lovingly tending to her courtyard full of plants and flowers and her fishpond and was very active with her Fortier High School Class of '64 reunion committee. Janye has been a resident of Metairie for the last 50 years. Janye is survived by her sons Kevin (Nicole) and Brett (Erica), granddaughters Madeleine, Rowan, Samantha and Paige and her sister Leeni Mitchell. She is preceded in death by her husband, John Badinger.

Family and friends are invited to attend her Celebration of Life and inurnment at Greenwood Cemetery on Friday, May 5, 2023 at 11:00 AM with a reception to follow at her home in Metairie.

In lieu of flowers, please donate to the Team Gleason Foundation: <https://teamgleason.org/donate/>.
