

Jason Peter Lemoine

September 4, 1980 - November 15, 2022

Jason Peter Lemoine passed away peacefully on November 15, 2022 surrounded by family. He was born on September 4, 1980 in Bunkie, Louisiana.

Jason was a loving dad who wore his heart on his sleeve with no shame. He owned and operated his own Fencing Company. Jason loved to go to the French Quarter, parades, and find new places to eat great food. A lover of early mornings, Saints games, poetry, deep blue water, was extremely intelligent, and generous to a fault. Jason was a gentle giant of a man who constantly kept a smile on his face. He knew Jesus and never had unkind words about others. Jason lived for and loved to be a mentor and teach people. His lover life helped him defy all odds and was a living, breathing testament to the grace and mercy of Jesus. He was thankful for that until the end. He is now healed, whole, and forever holding a special place in everyone's heart who knew him the most.

Beloved father of Christian Lemoine.

Jason. You always had kind and inspirational message for all of us. I loved the way you would encourage us to be faithful and fearless like a lion, when it came to believing in God. You always ❤️ made sure your love for your girlfriend and son was communicated in your messages. My heart breaks 💔 for them, as your presence is going to be greatly missed. I see you with your mom, holding hands and walking with Jesus on those golden streets. Rest in his presence and watch over all of us.
Love your friend from Minnesota.

“ Jason was a person that was there for everyone. He loved his son more than words could say. He felt he was the best thing he ever did and looked up to him to be the person he could not always be. He loved Yuri with all of his heart and knew she was always there for him and he hoped he could be for her.

He served others when ever he could he worked the Matthew 25:35 Ministries' Food Pantry before he would leave for work at 7am. He made me a morning person by having to meet him at 5:30 - 6am!!

He love life and loved the thought of having a family that would always rap their arms around each other. I know his Mom and Jesus Himself opened their arms to receive Jason into heaven. We will miss him but he is home.

It took me a while to catch my breath and say few things...

Jason was kind, generous and respectful person. He's done some works for me and he was that person with action not just words. He will surely be missed by so many...

Rest in Heaven Jason...know that we all loved you!!
