“ Oh my goodness. The memories I have! My 1st is that every, and I mean every weekend our families would get together at one house (family and/or friends) to play poker. The adults would play cards, eat, drink, smoke, cuss and do whatever while the children (that would be us) would play games or watch TV. Morgus was our favorite!

My 2nd is visiting Granny and Grandpa. We would all go visit and Granny would fix us breakfast or dinner. While she did that, Grandpa would take us in the backyard to feed the chickens and climb the fig tree! We would sit on the front porch and every now and then Grandpa would let one of us light his corn-cob pipe! We were so proud to get a turn.

Uncle Al, I know you are so happy to have Aunt Jean in heaven with you. I suppose, if they allow it, that you guys (along with my dad, JC, and many others) are already getting a poker game going.

We love you Aunt Jean and will miss you. God Bless

“ Mom not sure what to do with my nights. I should be watching T.V. with u or just visiting. I can remember sometimes if I didn't get there I could expect Ronnie at any time 2 say something like u better go see your mom, she thinks your mad at her . Well I still find myself going there but your not there. The memories r but your not. Everytime I put Sheba & Boots out, I can't help but look for u, Boots still goes through the gate 2 get 2 your door. You know what she looking for thoes animal crackers. Boots now barks at herself in the mirror, Mom, I know u must b laughing, because we r. We know that u r in a better place, but we can still love and miss u. It's not easy, but we will b o.k. Love From Montz
