“ Guess who?!!! Yup it's me! Just Coming to write to you like I do every year. I can't believe it's been this long jeff. I can't believe you don't know me as a mom. I Can't believe you don't know your two amazing nephews. and even though it's been a very long 14 years, I still cannot wrap my head around the fact that I will not talk to you or see you again. That you will not walk in the door at some point. it took me awhile, but I did make peace with your death. But I still cannot get over the emotion of just not being able to see you ever again. I love you. And I'm still keeping your memory alive.

There is never a few hours that goes by when I don't think about you. I've finally made peace with your death in these past 4 years. But time will never take away the lonelines I feel, now as a one sided sibling team. I've been writing on here since the week you passed, and have never stopped. There must be at least 100messages, pictures, virtual gifts and candles from me alone. You never have to worry about being forgotten because as your sister, i WILL ALWAYS have your back. Love u

“ *The poem I wrote for you Day by day I think of you,
How can all of this be true?
I can't believe you're really gone,
I still can't accept it,
Even after so long.
Just the thought of you makes me cry,
I never even got the chance to say goodbye.
Every picture, every letter,
I don't know if it will ever get better.
I always smell your familiar scent,
It makes me think of all of the times we've spent.
I know we didn't always get along,
And every time we talked, it would always go wrong.
So many things I never got to say,
I never imagined you'd ever be so far away.
You were my brother,
And I loved you like no other.
In my heart you'll always be,
You'll be my guide and help me see.
I'll never forget your soothing voice,
I would take your place if I had a choice.
But now I have to let you rest,
Although without you my world's a mess.
I miss you with all of my heart,
I wish we never had to part.
I know you're always by my side,
So now I guess this is my goodbye*

Were you letting me know about something. I somewhat remember dreaming about you but as much as I try I can't remember what we were talking about. I am trying so hard to pray for you so that you are at peace but please watch over us. We really need you to help and guide and lead us where you know we need to be. Just keep letting me know you are there and I will always listen and pay attention. You're with me always.*

“ Went to mass for you last night at SJA for All Soul's Day. Carried your candle up and had it lit in your honor. I have the candle and the program for Hannah, also we can light it and pray for you and to you. I know you were there. I know you see and feel and appreciate all I am trying to do in your honor. I'm just sorry it is at this point. There is so much going on and so much I want to tell you. So much that I know you could handle. So much that I know you would handle (in only the way you could). You know they say life is short. I didn't really pay attention to that or understand it totally until now. I'm praying for you always. Behave yourself up there okay! All my love always!

“ For some reason you have been with me a lot lately. I felt you Sunday in the kitchen. I know you were there. Please stay around Hannah & I. She needs you so bad, she misses you. There isn't a day that goes by that she doesn't mention you. How I wish we could turn back time, but we can't and life has to go on. Unfortunately that is so much easier said than done. I'm sorry for not being there more. I know you loved us and I know it hurt you not seeing us as much as you wanted to. Jeff, she is so smart and so artistic. You would be so proud of her, but I know you are. I know you are watching her. Stay with us always. We love you.

“ all time does is make u able to get up, get dressed and go 2 work. hardly. u think u r doing better, smiling, going to work, clening your house etc. that last 2 days if r lucky. u try so hard to fight the overwhelming sadness. i mean u really try to distract yourself. u think of how u being so upset hurts the people u are around u. u put forth all the effort u know u can to get back in a normal routine. and then the pitch black cloud forms again. and within mins u r sucked back in never ending blackhole. its only been 3 WEEKS. i feel like people are im sure still hurt and always will but they are moving on.i am blown away by this. the past few years of your life people around u and people in our familydidnt understand and looked down on u. judging and shaking their heads. people in our immediate family. sadly myself included. they have "grieved" and now have moved on. not me. jeff u know like i know that no one was closer to you than me. shame on your sister for not believing everytime u cried. shame on me when u reached out to me and only me i blew u off bc i was mad. i came to u on a few very serious matters w me. each time u dropped everything to help me. god damn shame on me. my brother was on top of the landmark hotel screaming i only want my sister. i did come. that time. let me tell u something jeff, u deserve more fking respect than anyone ever gave u. sadly i have to do this in your death. yea im starting 2 realize that my no sleep or eating is a way 4 me 2 try and feel half the pain u did. one night i was so upset thinking of u going to mamas, startring a fight then going the er, lying there in that bed gasping for air and your own throw up. lying there ALONE crying, i started cutting my arm. it was like i could feel what u felt. after, i knew i would never do that again. for many diffrent reasons. it was something i needed 2 go through and weirdly it helped for that phase in my grief. do i want to hurt myself? absoloutlely not. im 2 smart 4 that. but i needed 2 get over that feeling of u hurting. that

“ Jeffrey Derek Hauck
Memories & Thoughts from your loving little sister

My brother Jeff was a very unique person. He had a love for music and never failed to share his knowledge. The most important thing he taught me was how to use humor in any situation. That no matter what predicament you got into, crack a joke and it will be ok!

Anyone who knew my brother knew he was a person with many layers. He was caring and sensitive but also tough and strong. And down right hilarious! One of my earliest memories is of Christmas morning. My brother would put his presents to the side and go through all of mine with me. He always made sure I was happy and taken care of. Jeff and I always had our own private things that no one would understand.

One of my favorite things is when he would walk by my room and say ARE YOU READY TO ROCK?! I would scream and he would run in and play me as his air guitar. He was always the BEST prankster and the only one who could always get me. A few weeks ago I called my mom's house and he answered in her voice. I had a whole conversation until he started laughing and I was so mad because he knew he was the only person on earth who could ever get me like that. I am so glad he influenced these characteristics on me...caring, funny prankster and a free spirit.

Despite some unfortunate personal things my brother went through the past few years, he would always come out with a positive outlook and a hope for a fresh start. I now believe that he tried to overcome his issues but unfortunately they over came.

My brother wanted nothing more than to be a good brother, dad and son. He loved all three of his children with all his heart and I know he was proud of all three of them. I as there Nanny will always take care of them as I always have. But now I will make sure choices they make in life are choices Jeff would want for them. I will also continue my brothers memory fir my parents. He tried the best he could to be a good son. We talked all the time about how lucky we are. Instead of dwelling on the negative times I want them to think of the funny great times. Besides, I promise my brother would be saying stop whining all of you. Bunch of wussies.

Jeff, my only brother, I will keep the fight strong for adoptee rights. I was the only person you ever talked to about it. Adoption affected you more than anyone knew. I will not give up fighting so maybe we can help someone else.

Jeffrey Derek Hauck- loving father, son and brother

Jeffrey Derek Hauck- protector, fighter and teacher

Jeffrey Derek Hauck worlds best prankster and #1 sense of humor

“ i thought your funeral would help me some form of closure.but instead it helped erase some of my negative memories and replaced them with more of the positive ones. which is making this situation more difficult for me to handle. i remember how much people loved u and how u affected everyone u came in contact with. i know you are going to visit it me but u know me with no patience.in the bottom of my stomach i can feel that u need my help either guiding u somewhere or getting u final peace. u were so much older than me but in these past few years i def took the role of the older sibling. it used to make me made to take care of u but now i feel like my life will not b able to go on straight not knowing if u are at peace or up where ever crying for my help. i know u were laughing a few times at your funeral. the mass with the priest and his endless readings. your kids and i saying innapropriate things to make each other laugh. all the "god talk and bless blah blah" u were prob like cmon mama &daddy. it was like u were living inside of me some moments of that day bc i know word for word what u would have said in certain situations. i know u saw me work the room and crack jokes and smile. i also know u saw me in private and almost the physical agony i go thru bc i have to be ok in front of everyone. and how about daddy that day? jesus christ jeff what have u done to him? u better listen to me and listen to me real good buddy.. u need either get to me for help and we go help daddy or the first thing u do before anything is make a visit or whatever u have to do to give him some peace.i love how im still completly bossing u around in death. we gotta figure something out asap for him bc this is the first time EVER he needs us. im getting worried so hurry up and let me help u if u are lost and we can brother sister unite a plan for daddy. love u brother.

The Wimberly Family - October 06, 2011 at 10:24 PM

“Forty years ago, in January 1971, mom and I got the news we both wanted so dearly. After finding out we were unable to have children of our own, the news that a wonderful young lady, whom we never met, had delivered a baby boy and wanted us to have him to love and make him happy with us. And for the next ten years, he and he alone made us so very happy. Then in January 1981, another call came that another wonderful young lady had a baby girl and she too wanted mom and dad to have her and make her happy. Suddenly you had a baby sister who you helped your mom and dad love. You were so very proud of her and helped her grow up always hugging and kissing her just like you always did to your mom and dad. Both of you lived and loved together just like you two were blood relatives and that made mom and dad so very happy, seeing those smiles and giving us kisses. Then you found a beautiful young lady whom you loved and you both decided to give us two beautiful grandchildren. You obviously gave them some of those fantastic loving genes because now at 21 and 17, your son has grown up to be one hellva young man whom I know that, like your mom and dad, are so proud of him, and your daughter is growing up to be equally as happy and so much like you. Then you met another fantastic girl and you two gave us still another beautiful young granddaughter who seems to be so much like you - very loving and always has that wonderful smile just like you. Oh yeah Jeff! For forty very wonderful years, in spite some demons that had taken over your body and made you someone else for short periods of time, you have given your adopted mom and dad some of the most wonderful years of our lives. Now, for whatever reason, you had to leave us and give us all sorrow - that I, your father, cannot understand in spite trying to have the faith that I was taught and grew up with. However, with the help of your Aunt Judy and Maw Maw Verla, I'm trying to believe that you are at rest and you don't have to deal with those demons. The other thing that is helping me and mom overcome this heartbreaking experience that is oh so gut wrenching is the thought that you are back with the grandma that you loved so much - your Maw Maw

Hazel. So while it's time to say goodbye to you in flesh and blood and hopefully Maw Maw is hugging you, I want to say that your sis has said that she will continue the pursuit of adoptive rights that obviously you and her had been so intent on getting right. Although finding out your real parents' physical shortcomings - if they too had any demons - is not going to bring you back into mom and dad's arms, it may help in what is troubling your sis. So your job now is to help Stef and watch over her --- as well as of course Chris, Amanda and Hannah.

We loved you so much here on earth - you will be in our hearts every minute of every day as long as we live --- when I hope you will be there with that smile and that kiss that I will so much miss!

Love you always

Mom and Dad

She is so much like you sometimes it scares me, but in a good way. Thank you so much for the gift of her. I could have never asked anymore of you. She loves you so much. In her eyes you were and will always be bigger than life. I will make sure of that! Now you can be with her always watching, guiding, protecting and loving her from Heaven.
