“ I am just seeing this memorial now, although I sadly learned of Jessi's passing last spring. I had the honor and privilege to work with her through Pinecrest and Orange Village. She made everything easier. And she made everything better. She was such a joy to work with...I only wish we had had more time together. May her soul rest in peace and may her effervescent smile, energy, and kindness fill heaven with joy that can be spread throughout the world. She is missed. <3
